II.8) Additional information:

In order to allow a specific analysis in support of a better bid design process, a technical consultation with the market has been planned. The aim is to stimulate suggestions and preliminary proposals from potential suppliers of all the services and goods involved, at national and international level. The candidates are invited to consult the website of the project at the following address: www.ausl.bo.it where a 'Market Sounding Prospectus' with information about the project and company institutional targets will be made available. The dedicated web site will be progressively updated on the basis of the progress of activities.

This procurement process is part of the EcoQUIP Project, <http://www.ecoquip.eu> co-financed by the European Commission. The aim of the EcoQUIP project is to improve the efficiency, quality and environmental sustainability of healthcare services through innovation procurement.

The project aims of creating a 'Group of hospitals Leader in Innovation Procurement (Procurement Leaders Innovation Group)' which will have competence in procurement addressed to innovation procurement and the capacity to pioneer new approaches to collaborative procurement.

The aim is to stimulate demand for innovative goods and services and delivering practical procurement outcomes.

The objective of the EcoQUIP project is to support public procurers in purchasing new/improved solutions to:

- Offset the additional risks and costs of innovation procurement;
- Enable collaboration to create a critical mass of demand;
- Test the feasibility and options for a future EU support scheme;

The PIN has to be intended as an indication of potential future procurement activity and can be subjected to change. This notice doesn't indicate any specific commitment to bid and it is not part of any pre-qualification or selection process.
